Notice.
Chariton Circuit Court Clerk's Office, in vacation, April 20th, A. D. 1844.

And Eliza Keister, Plaintiff, vs. Josiah Fisk, her solicitor, and files her Bill of complaint against the said defendant, setting forth among other things, that on or about the 6th day of February, A. D. 1841, she was joined in the bonds of matrimony to the said Washington Keister, and that shortly after their marriage they commenced housekeeping and lived together until about the 10th day of January, A. D. 1843, that during that time she treated her husband in a kind and affectionate manner as it was the duty of a wife to treat her husband, that the said defendant, disregarding the obligations of a husband, treated her in a disrespectful manner by using indecent language to her, that said defendant accused her of having committed adultery, thereby offering such indignities to her person as to render her condition intolerable. The prayer of the bill is that she may be divorced from the bonds of matrimony contracted with the said Washington Keister, that she be granted alimony and for general relief. You, the said Washington Keister, are therefore notified to appear on the first day of the next term of this Court, to be held at the Court house of said county, in the town of Keytesville, on the first Monday in September next, and answer the said bill or the same will be taken against you for confessed. And it is further ordered that this notice be published in some newspaper printed in this State, for eight weeks successively; the last insertion to be at least four weeks before the next term of this Court.

Fayette Male and Female Academy.
THE fourth Session of this Institution will commence on the first Monday in May next, and will continue five months. The principal flatters himself that he is sufficiently known to the citizens of Fayette and vicinity, to supercede the necessity of a lengthy article in a newspaper. He would therefore simply refer those to whom he is unknown, to his former patrons, and pledge himself to bring into requisition all his powers to advance the youth entrusted to his care in Literature and Morals; that they may become useful members of society. TERMS. Orthography, Reading and Writing per session, $6.00. English Grammar, Arithmetic and Geography, $5.00. Algebra, Trigonometry, Geometry, $12.50. Sundry use of the Globes, &c., $15.00. Latin and Greek Languages, $15.00. Should the patronage of the Institution require it, the principal will be able to bring to his aid competent assistance. A few boarders can be accommodated upon reasonable terms in the family of the Principal. DAVID I. CALDWELL, Principal. Fayette, April 20th, 1844.
